Christmas Message

Christmas is a time of year, more than any other, that leads me to reminisce. As soon as the winter chill sets in, tinsel and lights begin to adorn the streets, and Bing Crosby's crooning gets stuck on repeat in every supermarket, I can't help but get nostalgic. I remember the Christmas of my childhood and the traditions my family had and still have: from Carols by Candlelight at the Royal Albert Hall, to the freezing Boxing Day stomp round Hampstead Heath and the delicious feast of finger food which was our reward.

Partridges celebrated its 50th anniversary this year, as a shop and as a part of our memories and traditions. Now an iconic stalwart of the community, Partridges will have traditions of its own and will be a key part of the Christmas traditions many of you and your families have. Are you an annual Christmas hamper purchaser? Or a last-minute Christmas Eve buy-the-panettone-in-a-mad-rush sort of shopper? Whatever your Christmas plans, Partridges is a wonderful place to incorporate into your happy memories.

...and as you reflect on the memories of past Christmas, and make plenty of new memories, perhaps you might take a moment to consider that Christmas is all about remembering. We remember joy, we remember family, we remember gifts and party games; and above all, as John Betjeman reminds us in his wonderful Christmas poem, we remember how we have all this goodness and love in the first place:

'No love that in a family dwells,
No carolling in frosty air,
Nor all the steeple-shaking bells
Can with this single Truth compare –
That God was man in Palestine
And lives today in Bread and Wine.'

2022 has been an unforgettable year of anniversaries and farewells.

2022 has been an incredibly memorable year for Partridges and us all. In May we celebrated our 50th Anniversary of being in Chelsea and were very excited about the return of the RHS Chelsea Flower Show. In June we joined with many Londoners in celebrating the Queen's Platinum Jubilee with an enormous street party and a Commonwealth Street Market along the Kings Road. But during this year we have also suffered two significant losses. Firstly our Founder, my brother, Sir Richard Shepherd died in February and it was with a feeling of great sorrow that we learned of the death of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II in September.

Apart from being a much loved Monarch for 70 years and a global figure of respect she was also a highly valued customer for us, at Partridges, for over 30 years. For this reason many of our staff felt a close personal connection with Her Majesty and shared in the loss so keenly felt by so many in the country.

I was fortunate to have the great privilege of meeting Her Majesty on several occasions and she kindly granted us her Royal Warrant as Grocers in 1994. We have always believed this to be the highest honour a business can achieve. We are one of only a small number of food shops who hold the Warrant and one of 800 mainly British firms that have it in total.

I particularly remember the occasion when we helped to organise a Royal Warrant Holders Christmas Market inside Buckingham Palace for the household staff some ten years ago. There were nearly 100 Royal Warrant Holding Companies involved, if my memory serves me correctly, strategically placed around the historic Throne Room. The Queen took the trouble to stop at every one of the stalls to look at the products and listen to the personal stories of the people behind the enterprise. For family businesses this was the experience of a lifetime. The Queen spent several hours in our company and we were all delighted at the great interest and respect she showed to us all.

In the same way she touched the lives of so many in the United Kingdom and beyond. It was not just about pomp and circumstance it was about taking pains and going the extra mile to understand the lives of people in modern Britain. William Blake said, "Who would do good to others must do it in minute particulars". That is what she did. She showed her kindness in minute particulars, as well as in the pageantry and in her Constitutional duties.

I also know that she would want us to say, "God Save the King" and transfer our fullest support to King Charles III and the rest of her family.

God Save the King and sending best wishes for a very Happy Christmas and a prosperous and successful 2023 from all of us at Partridges.

John Shepherd

50 YEARS of PARTRIDGES IN CHELSEA

A Potted History

DIANA CATCHPOLE

1970s The beginnings

Partridges was the vision of Sir Richard Shepherd, who opened the independent, food shop with the slogan "Good things for the larder". It began life as a delicatessen and was a convenient place to shop as it opened long hours and boasted a free bicycle delivery service. Products sold from day one included Bird's Nest Soup, Gulls Eggs and Frozen Jugged Hare. Game Pie and Taramasalata were popular, and the cake counter sold Black Forest Gateau. A bottle of Vin Ordinaire sold for 60p, Chablis for 77p, Valpolicella for 90p and Moët et Chandon Champagne for £2.20. Prices were applied with a pricing gun, few products had sell-by dates and Sunday trading was restricted.

1980s Expansion

In 1981 Sir Richard's younger brother John Shepherd, who had joined the business as a student in 1973, took over the reins and has spent over 40 years as Partridges Managing Director. In 1984 Partridges bought the double unit carpet shop next door and tripled in size and the delivery bike was replaced by a van. By the end of the decade Partridges had started a small export business, had become Founder Members of the Guild of Fine Food Retailers and stocked over 100 own label products.

1990s Royal Warrant Holders

In 1991 Partridges received a phone call from Buckingham Palace asking to order some products. Partridges leapt at the opportunity and in 1994 was granted the Royal Warrant as Grocers to Her Majesty.

2000s Duke of York Square

In 2004 The Cadogan Estate invited Partridges to move to the newly converted Barracks on the Kings Road. The 500 yard move to Duke of York Square was not easy but Partridges closed one shop and opened the other in the space of about 4 days.

In 2005 Partridges launched the Saturday Duke of York Square Fine Food Market, with the support of Cadogan. It started with about 20 traders and slowly the number increased to about 70, helping make Partridges more accessible to younger customers. Stalls are offered to smaller businesses first and the word 'Startisan' was coined to describe the 'Startup Artisans'. In 2021 Partridges celebrated its 750th Fine Food Market.

2010s Awards & Gin

In 2017 Partridges joined the large party on the Square to celebrate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee. In 2016 the market won a national award as Best Market Attraction and Partridges also won an award for Best Family Business in Retailing from Family Business United. In 2017 created its own Chelsea Flower Gin to celebrate its 45th Anniversary and the following May the No.2 Chelsea Flower Gin was launched with both becoming best sellers. In 2019 John Shepherd became 'Icon of the Speciality Fine Food & Drink Industry' and that autumn Partridges won the 'In Good Taste' award at the inaugural Chelsea Awards.

2020s Covid

The beginning of the 2020s has been marred by the Covid pandemic. Fortunately, the shops were able to remain open throughout and a new normal was established. In 2022 Partridges enjoyed celebrating the Queen's Platinum Anniversary along with its own Golden Anniversary but was saddened at the passing of its founder Sir Richard Shepherd in February and Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II in September.

2022 SUMMER CELEBRATIONS

In June, to mark The Queen's Platinum Jubilee, a four day weekend of celebrations took place across the country including a host of local activity in Chelsea.

THE HATCHING OF PARTRIDGES

by John Shepherd, Owner & Managing Director of Partridges

Sadly in February this year Sir Richard Shepherd, the Founder of Partridges, died at the age of 79. Here his younger brother John Shepherd remembers how his brother had the idea for Partridges and why he chose the name Partridges rather than Grouse!

In the early 1960s my brother Richard attended the London School of Economics. It was an illustrious peer group he encountered there which included future MPs, publishers, television presenters and a global rock star - Sir Mick Jagger.

One of his closest friends and a fellow student at LSE at the time was Albert Vince who came from a retailing background. Albert had a business vision for creating late night food shops across London, which was then a little known concept in the Swinging Sixties. The vision became Europa Foods.

Richard was quick to see the potential and took over Albert's first shop just outside Earls Court Road tube station. He then went on to found a chain of local supermarkets called Shepherd Foods. However he always cherished the idea of a delicatessen that reflected the traditional values of an old fashioned village grocer but with the cutting edge of the finest foods and wines. For this venture he chose the name 'Partridges' as it conjured up the image of a Mr Partridge, the village grocer. This was many years before Alan Partridge (no relation) came anywhere close to a microphone.

Partridges, now without the grocer's apostrophe, was not the only suggestion for the name of the fine food establishment. Another of his close friends, the Reverend Bernard Chalken,

Sir Richard Charles Scrimgeour Shepherd
Founder of Partridges
6th December 1942 - 19th February 2022

who incidentally provided a blessing to each shop Richard opened, canvassed for the shop to be called Grouse.

I seem to recall that several people became enthusiastic about this idea at the time. The potential consequences of calling any business by this name may seem amusing, but to anyone with the actual responsibility of running it for over 40 years (me) it would undoubtedly have been a nightmare. The expression 'a grouse about Grouse' would no doubt have entered the national parlance.

The Telegraph

Sir Richard Shepherd, Tory MP and committed Eurosceptic who rebelled over the Maastricht Treaty - obituary

Shepherd and his brother opened Partridges, the fine food store with its motto 'Good Things for the Larder', in Sloane Street in 1972

By Telegraph Obituaries
22 Feb 2022, 5:38pm

SHEPHERD—Sir Richard Charles Scrimgeour died peacefully at home on 19th February 2022, aged 79, surrounded by his family. Much loved brother of David and John, uncle to Florence, Alex and Kelly and great uncle to Joseph, Alfred, Freddie, Clara and Sebastian. Member of Parliament for Aldridge-Spencerwood for 56 years and Founder of Partridges the family business. A memorial service is being planned.
Online ref: A255092

Obituaries for Sir Richard featured in multiple national publications.

Fortunately Grouse was not chosen, which considering it was proposed by a vicar was for me something like an act of divine intervention.

So, on 25th May 1972 Richard walked the 180 steps from his studio flat to 132 Sloane Street SW1 (a former car showroom) and opened the door into the 'Aladdin's Cave' of Partridges first fine food store for the very first time.

50 years and several million customers later I still breathe a sigh of relief when I think of our near miss with a Grouse.

NEW FOR 2022 PARTRIDGES CHELSEA BUN GIN

What the influencers are saying...

'Chelsea Iced Tea' by Gin Influencer @thegirlwholovesgin says... "A beautiful summery boozy Iced Tea using Chelsea Bun Gin. This gin is sweet, slightly spiced and perfect for tall, iced cocktails."

MIX 30ml Chelsea Bun Gin • 20ml Orange Liqueur • 50ml Earl Grey Tea Chilled • 50ml Lemon Juice • 10ml Mixed Spice Syrup

Journalist Narin Flanders says... "Ideal for mixing with soda water or tonic, or just drinking neat over ice, the Chelsea Bun Gin has a zesty citrus flavour with hints of orange and sultana as well as a really lovely warmth from a tickle of allspice and clove... I definitely recommend giving it a try."

Independent Gin Blogger and Gin Judge, Allison Styrdom @ginsquares created a Chelsea Martinez cocktail and says... "YUMMY YUMMY! I have some bottles in my collection that I can just sip all day and this might be one of them! It's delicious - a gorgeous balance of citrus and spice and it still manages to keep the juniper perfectly poised amongst the clove and cinnamon. They all swirl around like a Chelsea Bun and as you sip it, the flavours unravel and caress your tastebuds! I made an Orange Martinez to go with a Chelsea Bun which I think it paired perfectly with, highlighting the citrus in the gin and was perfect for sipping between bites."

CHELSEA MARTINEZ
MIX 60ml Chelsea Bun Gin • 15ml Sweet Vermouth eg Discarded • 10ml Orange Curacao • 2 dashes Orange Bitters
STIR with ice and strain into a chilled glass.

Drinks Journalist and Blogger Susan Schwartz from A Lush Life Manual says... "Think juniper blended with clove, cinnamon and citrus. Partridges is a wonderful store. Not only do they sell amazing gin, but they have lots of American food! When I am homesick, I walk through the aisles and pick up some Pepperidge Farm's Goldfish, the perfect accompaniment to go with my Chelsea Bun G&T. Of course, any gin cocktail could benefit from using Chelsea Bun Gin!"

Influencer Emma Bevan @littlondonwhispers also gave Chelsea Bun Gin the seal of approval mixing hers with garnishes of strawberries and basil.

Welcoming the USDA

On 22nd June Partridges, Duke of York Square, welcomed a group of American State Department Agriculture Commissioners from 13 US states, as we are recognised as having one of the largest ranges of American grocery products in the UK. The group were part of an Agriculture Trade Mission who are interested in exporting to the UK. John Shepherd talked to them about the history and vision of Partridges and the group were delighted to see how American products were featured in the store.

Sustainability Markets

This autumn two of the Duke of York Saturday Fine Food Markets curated by Partridges have been 'sustainable markets' where the food and packaging has been more sustainable. More sustainability markets are planned for 2023!

The name "Saketoba" consists of two words: "SAKE", which means salmon, and "TOBA", an old Japanese term for winter leaves. The recipe has a long, rich history and its secret was inherited from the Ainu people, who were the earliest settlers of the island of Hokkaido.

PARTRIDGES CHRISTMAS WINE PAIRING ADVICE

As Christmas approaches, we would like to recommend some fine wine pairings to go with the traditional Christmas food. Free-range turkeys are available at Partridges delicatessen counters and Christmas puddings and panettones in our shops, and we have a wide range of Champagne and wine available to serve alongside these festive favourites.

Carlos Mendoza, Cellar Master

Our popular Partridges Champagne 1er Cru Blanc de Blancs Brut NV is available at our Champagne Bar at the Duke of York Square Saturday Fine Food Market, if you would like to try it. This 100% Chardonnay grape Champagne is a natural match for seafood, smoked salmon and oysters as it has a spectrum of fresh citrus flavours.

Another fantastic, delicious Champagne, which is particularly good as an aperitif, is Taittinger Brut Reserve. The nose is very open and expressive and delivers aromas of dried fruit and brioche with flavours of fresh fruit and honey. PN TX 17 of the Bollinger House Champagne is very fruity and lively with notes of cooked apricot, peach and exotic fruit followed by flavours of acacia honey, fresh walnut, and spice.

Champagne is also perfect to serve with our range of delicious caviar. Briny fish eggs compliment Champagne because of their natural saltiness and light oiliness, while the mineral qualities in both caviar and Champagne harmonise.

Another great wine pairing for shellfish and charcuterie is the Louis Latour Chablis which has aromas of grapefruit, lemon, and almond. The New Zealand Cloudy Bay Sauvignon Blanc also pairs beautifully with any dishes containing lemon. Whereas our Partridges Pinot Noir 2020 is light in body and tannins so it is the perfect bottle of red wine and an absolute winner to drink with roast Christmas turkey and ham.

I would also recommend the Ferraton Père & Fils Samorens Côtes-du-Rhône Rouge, which is a dark ruby red colour and has aromas of wild meat, black olives and red fruit. It pairs very well with game meats.

Moving onto dessert, I recommend Pellegrino Pantelleria Passito Liquoroso from Sicily which has balanced notes of honey, dried figs and light hints of apricots and sweet fruit pickles that go well with our Partridges Panettone.

Lastly, our Christmas pudding pairs perfectly with Dow's Quinta do Bomfim Vintage Port which is rich with flavours of black cherry and berry fruits, raspberries, prunes, and raisins that meld well with the fruit-filled pudding.

Cheers and Bon Appetit,

Carlos Mendoza
